TREASURY DEPARTMENT, REGISTER'S OFFICE, July 27, 1872.

I hereby certify that the report No. 185603, dated July 25, 1872, F. E. Spinner, Treasurer United States, on account of his receipts and expenditures account, has been charged, and B. W. Reynolds, late United States depository, Saint Croix, Wis., on account of public moneys deposited with him, credited with the sum of $1,014.48 on the books of this office.

J. A. GRAHAM, for Register.

THIRD QUARTER, 1872—Continued.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Washington, D. C., June 14, 1872.

SIR: The First Auditor has this day been directed to make the necessary settlement, recharging your general account with the amount of $1,014.48, being part of the amount for which you received credit by report No. 152083, and for which B. W. Reynolds, esq., late United States depositary at Falls of Saint Croix, Wis., was debited.

Congress having passed an act (June 10, 1872) for the relief of Mr. Reynolds, allowing him $2,175, the First Comptroller has been directed to cause $1,014.48 of that amount to be deposited with you as a transfer of funds from the Falls of Saint Croix depositary.

When you shall have received notice from the Register of the Treasury that your general account has been debited with that sum, and you shall have received the deposit herein referred to, you will please make the necessary entries in your books, closing Mr. Reynolds's account.

Very respectfully,

WM. A. RICHARDSON,
Acting Secretary.

F. E. SPINNER, Esq.,
United States Treasurer, Washington, D. C.

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT.

Balance due the United States, as shown by recapitulatory statement of receipts and payments.....	$130,772,098 80
But the Treasurer has received and directed the payment of sundry warrants not returned at the time of settlement, and consequently not charged on this account, the amount of which, as he has given conditional credit to the several assistant treasurers, depositories, and national banks, reduces so much the balance, as per statement B	790,034 37
	129,982,064 43
In addition to which the Treasurer holds in his hands various sums of money with the several assistant treasurers, depositories, and national banks, for which no covering warrants have been issued, and which are properly added to the above, but the Treasurer is not legally chargeable with the same, as per statement C	3,274,487 73
Balance, as shown per statement A	133,256,552 16

F. E. SPINNER,
Treasurer United States.

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT.

Balance due the United States, as shown by recapitulatory statement of receipts and expenditures	$127,244,730 00
But the Treasurer has received and directed the payment of sundry warrants not returned at the time of settlement, and consequently not charged in this account, the amount of which, as he has given conditional credit to the several assistant treasurers, depositories, and national banks, decreases so much the balance, as per statement B	826,840 38

In addition to which the Treasurer holds in his hands various sums of money with the several assistant treasurers, depositories, and national banks, for which no covering warrants have been issued, and which are properly added to the above, but the Treasurer is not legally chargeable with the same, as per statement C	1,688,364 22

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, March 12, 1873.

SIR: Respectfully referred to Department's letter of September 7, 1870. I have this day requested the First Auditor to cause an account to be stated, charging you in your general account of receipts and expenditures, and crediting Hamilton Stuart, late United States depository, Galveston, Tex., with the sum of $2,033.32, with which, in your letter of the 7th instant, you stated you have credited Mr. Stuart. As soon as you shall have been notified by the Register of the Treasury that your account has been thus charged on his books, you will please make the necessary entries in your books, charging the late depository with said amount, and thus cancel the credit given him by you.

Very respectfully,

F. E. SPINNER,
Treasurer United States.

W. A. RICHARDSON, Secretary.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, REGISTER'S OFFICE, May 12, 1873.

I hereby certify that by report No. 188508, dated May 15, 1873, F. E. Spinner, Treasurer United States, in his account of receipts and expenditures, has been charged, and Hamilton Stuart, late United States depository at Galveston, Tex., on account of public moneys deposited with him, credited with the sum of $2,033.32 on the books of this Office.

J. F. POWELL, for Register.

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT.

Balance due the United States, as shown by recapitulatory statement of receipts and expenditures	$160,262,128 37
But the Treasurer has received and directed the payment of sundry warrants not returned at the time of settlement, and consequently not charged in this account, the amount of which, as he has given conditional credit to the several assistant treasurers, depositories, and national banks, decreases so much the balance, as per statement B	982,185 14
	159,279,943 23
In addition to which the Treasurer holds in his hands various sums of money with the several assistant treasurers, depositories, and national banks, for which no covering warrants have been issued, and which are properly added to the above, but the Treasurer is not legally chargeable with the same, as per statement C	65,627,828 63
Balance, as shown per statement A	224,907,771 86
